Reagle Players' "A Little Bit of Ireland" (info provided by Elaine Sakowich)

On Saturday March 14th, sixteen hpREM members and friends attended the Reagle Players' "A Little Bit of Ireland" production at the Waltham High School Auditorium. The show, filled with music, dance and comedy was very entertaining. Larry Reynolds and Comhaltas provided the Irish music while the Sally Harney Dancers, right down to the youngest dancer, captivated the audience with their step-dancing. The Massachusetts Harpist filled the theater with delightful music. Humor was a big hit with Reagle's own Hal Roach "Tis Himself" by Jerry Walker who had the audience roaring with laughter. As always this show was a most enjoyable social event!
